Village of Scarsdale v. Internal Revenue Service et al., No. 19 Civ. 6654 (PGG)
State of New Jersey et al. v. Mnuchin et al., No. 19 Civ. 6642 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe,

Baker & McKenzie LLP represents the Village of Scarsdale in Village of Scarsdale v. Internal Revenue Service et al., No. 19 Civ. 6642. I am writing on behalf of all plaintiffs in the two above-captioned matters to request a thirteen-day extension of time to file replies in support of their cross-motions for summary judgment.

On May 28, 2020, the Court granted the defendants' third request for an extension of time to file its combined reply and opposition brief relating to their motion to dismiss or, in the alternative, for summary judgment (the "Court's Order"). The defendants' combined reply and opposition brief is now due by June 10, 2020, while the plaintiff's reply due date, unchanged by the Court Order, remains June 18, 2020.

The plaintiffs respectfully request a corresponding amendment to the briefing schedule in light of the Court's Order. The briefing schedule preceding the Court's Order allowed plaintiffs three weeks to file their replies. Accordingly, the plaintiffs respectfully request a commensurate period in which to file their replies according to the new briefing timeline. If the Court grants this motion, the plaintiff's reply would be due by July 1, 2020, which is three weeks after the defendants' extended deadline. This extension would realign the previously agreed upon filing schedule with the defendants' extended deadline.

We have consulted counsel for the defendants in this case, and they do not object to this request.

MEMO ENDORSED

The Application is granted.

SO ORDERED:

Paul G. Gardephe, U.S.D.J.

Dated: January 21, 2021

We thank the Court for its consideration of this matter.

Respectfully,
